Pive scholarships in universities "Enobarbus" and Earle Evans, "Caniment exercises of the class of 1916, of the high school, which were held in the Texas Grand theater Wednesday night. The board of regents of the University of Texas presented two scholarships in the university to the boy and girl making the highest averages in their studies for their entire four years in the high school,

Wayne Garrett the valedictorian of the class, who made an average per-ceptage of over $2 for the four years of high school work was presented with the boy's scholarship in the uni-versity, and Grace Odell, whose aver-age was above $0, was awarded the wirks scholarship.

Ric was above 30, was awarded the girl's scholarship.

Garrett Semices Boy Gradunic.

Garrett be the first boy in the histors of the achool to be the class valedictorian. He is also the youngest boy to graduate from the high school, being how only 15 years old. For so young a lad, he has a rather remarkable record. He has been around the entire world, has lived seven years in the Philippine Islands and during the entire four years of his high school carreer, he has been neither absent nor rardy. He is the son of M. J. Garrett, superintendent of one of the school districts of Dona and county, N. M. His mother is the principal of the school at Canutillo, Texas Young Garrett's sister, Opal Garrett, was also the valedictorian of her class when she graduated in January, 1915, class.

Winners of Scholarships.

Mary Dewey and Albert Webb received the annual scholarships offered by the University Scholarship clab. These scholarships in the University of Virginia. This scholarship is annually offered to any boy standing in the highest third of his chass, coming to the university from an accredited high school. eracked open and bled. In a short while they spread all over both hands. My hands were much inflamed and the little red pim-ples soon became a solid scale. Soon my hands became such sights that I was ashamed to let any one see them, and they itched and burned so that I could not sleep but scratched all the time.

"I suffered this way at least four years. I saw in a magazine that Cuticura Soap and Ointment were good for tetter and I wrote for a free sample. In less than two days the stehling had stopped and the terrible burning was less, so I got a large bor of Cuticura Ointment and a cake of Soap. Now I am entirely bealed." (Signed) Miss C. Scene From "King Lear."

The next scene was the incident from the play. "King Lear." where "Cordelia." acted by Beth Luther, disgusted by the hypocritical protestations of love of her sisters to their father, refused to have any part with them. Locklin Caffey acted the role of "King Lear." The sisters. "Goneril" and "Began," were acted by Grace Hawking and Grace Odell. Farle Brown was the "France" and Carroll Plumb was "Bergunds."

The speeches in this rather trying scene were well performed. A chorus. "Who is Sylvia." from "The Two Gentlemen of Vercha," was sing by a chorus composed of all the graduates. Miss Elizabeth Doak, the supervisor of music, directed them.

The choosing of the cankets from "The Merchant of Venice" was acted in pantonime. It was one of the prefilest of the scenes presented. Anne Magoffin was "Portia," Churles Cook had the role of "Bassanilo." "Jessica" was acted by Alma Savage and Christian Schugt was "Antonio."
